We desire to call the special attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Boston Store in to-day's paper. This institution has long been a firm believer in printer's ink, and when they have anything special to offer the public they know how to tell them of it—advertise in the local papers. Mr. Asher Frank, who is at present in charge of this well known store, believes in the merit of his goods, and does not fail to make his "public talks" effective in bringing traffic his way. It will pay careful buyers to look over the prices the Boston Store quotes for their special sale.

The Beavers will hold a meeting tonight, and Secretary Hampton asks that all members be on hand to receive their quarterly cards. Other business of considerable importance to the order will also come before this meeting. Good Beavers should not let rainy weather stand in the way of their being present, as water is their "long suit."

The can't-get-away club is growing greater less and more beautifully small daily.

Mrs. B. H. Sands, of Ocala, arrived last evening and joined her husband who is the telephone manager at this place.—Orlando Star.

Mr. F. B. Jordan, who lives at the old Waldo place a few miles out from Ocala, says that for good pears put up in good style he received good prices this season. He says that it was the small knotty, indifferent ones that demoralized the prices.

The Ocala friends of Mrs. E. P. Moody and her daughter, Miss Lou Moody, will regret exceedingly to learn that they expect to make their home in Palatka hereafter. Mrs. Moody has resided in Ocala for many years and her departure will be a matter of much regret.

Mr. W. H. Chaille is announced in this morning's News as a candidate for alderman. Mr. Chaille is one of Miami's best known and most successful business men. He would make a good alderman, and there are certain elements in connection with his candidacy that make it sure that he will receive a very large vote.—Miami News.

Mrs. Julia Palmer, Miss Jessie Palmer and Whit Palmer left Monday for Dunedin, where they expect to make their home in the future. Their many Ocala friends will regret exceedingly to lose them and sincerely hope they will come back to this city at an early date. Mr. Harry Palmer will continue to make his home in Ocala.

I can give it unqualified recommendation 25c, 50c, $1.00. For sale by all druggist. m

Recent tests of molasses as a fuel show that under proper conditions one pound of the substance will evaporate two pounds of water. At present waste molasses is sprinkled on bagasse (spent sugar cane) on its way to the furnace. Molasses has been used as a fuel in Hawaii, Java, Cuba and Egypt.—Naval Stores Review,

Mr. E. E. Voyle, of Gainesville, who is putting up a long distance telephone line from Gainesville on down the peninsula, says that he has about had to suspend operations on account of the excessive high waters and tremendous rains. Caldwell, Agt. M. K. and T. R. R., Checotah, Ind. Ter., writes, April 18, 1903: "I was sick for over two years with enlargement of the liver and spleen. Here it is again. Governor Folk, of Missouri, about whom so many pretty things are said, smokes twenty cigars daily and takes his whisky 'straight.'

AN ACCIDENT LAST NIGHT.

Hose Wagon Turns Over—Two Men Injured, Though Not Seriously.
From Thursday's Daily.

Last night about 8:30 o'clock while the volunteer firemen were making a practice run, on the east side of the public square one of the hose wagons was overturned as it rounded the corner in front of the Ocala House.

J. Y. Stevens the driver, was thrown to the ground, and remained unconscious for several minutes, and it was at first thought he was fatally hurt. He was taken to the Postoffice drug store, Drs. Tompkins and Hood were summoned and it was found that the wounds he received were painful though not serious. He was afterwards taken to his quarters at the fire station where he was resting as well as could be expected at a late hour last night.

Joe R. White was on the seat with him and was also thrown to the ground, but fortunately landed on his feet, notwithstanding which he had his back and arms badly wrenched, from which he will no doubt be laid up for several days.

Jim Farris was on the side step of the wagon and was thrown completely over it but sustained no injuries. James Carlisle was in the rear of the wagon and as soon as the accident occurred had the presence of mind to run in front of the horses and succeeded in catching them by the bit and stopped what perhaps might have been a fearful runaway. He received a great deal of praise from those who witnessed his performance for his heroism.

The occupants of the wagon certainly had a narrow and almost miraculous escape and may well congratulate themselves that the results were no worse.

It is Some Other Warren.
BEAUMONT, TEXAS, Aug. 14, 1905.
MAJOR FRANK HARRIS:
I am in receipt of a marked copy of the Banner in which I learn that I was recently made a benedict, my Katherine coming from the pedagogical corps of Baylor University. The announcement fills me with joy.

The joy is, however, somewhat tinged with apprehension, lest there be a mistake somewhere along the line.

I have never been to Baylor, and as I know none of the teachers, I fear that the report is slightly exaggerated.

If, however, any of the readers of the Banner are irrevocably convinced to the contrary, the time honored offering of silver and cut glass will be eminently in order.

My respects to the Banner force, from whom I have received so many favors.

Most sincerely,
L. B. WARREN

Returned From Lake Weir.

The following persons who have been pleasuring at Lake Weir returned home Wednesday: Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Izlar, Mrs. D. W. Davis and children, Mrs. C. L. Bittinger, Miss Adele Bittinger, Messrs. Harry Walters, Valmore Izlar and Frank Harris, Jr.

The premium lists for the coming state fair, to be held in Tampa November 15-30, will be printed and ready for distribution during the coming week, and all desiring lists should at once write to F. L. Huf-faker, secretary, who will gladly send them out. The premiums, owing to the liberal appropriation made by the legislature, are the largest ever given at a state fair in the south, and no producer should fail to compete for one or more of them.

If the California peach, which is now ornamenting our fruits stands, were as good as it looks it would be the finest fruit on earth and fit nectar for the gods; it is handsome in size and in color, but is sadly lacking in flavor.

A Moonlight Picnic.

A party of fifty or more, composed entirely of the young members of the Ocala Epworth League, and a number of their friends, enjoyed one of the most pleasant social occasions of the summer Tuesday night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Taylor. Notwithstanding the inclement weather of the morning, an afternoon without rain permitted the prearranged plans to be fully carried out. It was strictly an "out-of-doors" affair. Completely surrounding the lawn were numerous Japanese lanterns which presented a beautiful effect. The jolly party entered into the games with joyful hearts and overflowing merriment. Chairs were placed on the lawn for the use of those who wearied themselves in the sports of the evening. It seemed that no one, in their haste to come, had forgotten a small package to add to the picnic store, and on the tables provided for the purpose was spread a most bountiful display of "sweet things," such as never fail to touch the heart strings and sound the love chords of "sweet sixteen."

At nine o'clock the vigorous sounding of "Old Liberty" called attention and the young gallants and smiling maidens marched in "double-quick time" against the "fortified table-lands," and after a strenuous contest a complete annihilation of the foe resulted. All who were in condition for further maneuvering renewed their activity in pleasant games. At 10:30 o'clock, and after a few popular song selections, the happy throng dispersed, with many expressions of their enjoyment of the evening.

A LEAGUER.
Hillman Beginning his Campaign in Georgia.

Hon. W. J. Hillman, of Live Oak, one of the wealthiest and most enterprising citizens of his state, is the guest of friends in Atlanta. Mr. Hillman is being prominently spoken of in connection with the governorship of Florida, and prominent men of the state believe his election is assured.—Atlanta Constitution.

Inasmuch as it is yet about three years before the primaries will be held, Mr. Hillman will really have nothing to lose by beginning his campaign in Georgia at this time. It's a funny place, however, in which to be running for governor of Florida.—Pensacola Journal.
